Thread: [\[Suggestion\] Storytelling/Experiences Subforum](#)

To begin with, sorry if previously suggested, I couldn't find anything of this sort when I searched.

Let me elaborate a bit.

My suggestion is to create a subforum in which members can tell stories or personal experiences and then others can read. While they're at it, maybe they can learn something too.

I know that we have the lounge but the lounge is more of a relaxing subforum, as it says in its description too:

Quote:For great discussions on various subjects and to have some fun relaxed topics you can enter our Lounge.

It could also be a great place to go to if you're bored, maybe you want to learn something, know how people got to where they are, and so on.

Stories could be about paranormal/terrifying experiences, maybe a person who became wealthy sharing their story, etc.

This could go under the Personal Life section since it would be personal experiences.

Just an idea of mine that I had.

Thanks for reading.

it'd just be filled with idiots humbly bragging about their life experiences and/or fake stories
