Thread: Bad technique. Bad night.

I feel like shit and spent three hours and made nothing. I feel like I'm good noticing time wasters and also I'm using kik and the built in kik chat for traffic. I'm thinking I'm just bad yeah I know, I'm still learning as much as I can. Also I will buy a pack soon because right now I'm using a free one and I continue to get asked to verify. Damn I'm such a noob and I'm upset as hell. Have a great day though everyone ?

Buying a pack isn't extremely imperative in my perspective, there's an absolute shit ton of HQ free packs around this section if you look for them via search bar. If you have any specific questions about approaching the dudes or anything like that feel free to PM me. I've been doing this shit for 2 years now and got a lot of experience under my belt. Good luck! ?

Three hours is nothing dude..may be try changing your approach and traffic sources.
Keep working.

My Skype is Syscom88 and I am always up for helping in free.
Instead of traffic sources I can help you with everything.

patience and persistence my dude.
if what you are doing isnt working, switch it up and see if that helps at all.
If you think its your pack either buy a new one or find a different free one.
Just stick with it though and you will see some profit start to come it.
