I like the NMD's better, I feel like they do too much on these with the shit on the side. I like the all white ones though, Adidas is easily on top now imo

Well... everybody got their own taste right. But I think you have a good style if you think these are ugly.

Not a big fan of the ultra boosts/yeezys or w/e you call them lol they just look so basic to me and it doesn't even look cool but that's just me. I feel most people cop them just for the brand.

True, you prob have a good fashion taste which goes well with them shoes tho so you do you, and I'll do me.

I genuinely like Yeezys, belugas are my favourite and I'ma try cop some black ones (maybe buy resell black/white, or cop the next dark colorway).

Also, ultraboosts are not really as popular in the UK as they are in US, most sneakers are so hyped everywhere but here.

You'll have ultraboost and nmd r1's which go out of stock in seconds on US staying in stock round here for hours on ends.

Might start coping sneakers here in the UK and start reselling to US lol

Is this the sneaker of 2017 that adds +60 skill points toward sucking dick?

I'll share this for sure

I wonder if the fakes would relatively feel the same, been a fan of yeezys for a while now, haven't had the funds.

Has the best "fakes", he sells budget yeezy v2's for around $60.
