If anyone has Netflix or kodi check out these shows. Honestly the best shows I've ever seen. Very good high drunk or sober

"COMMENT YOUR FAVORITE SHOWS"

BREAKING BAD (intense very addicting. Each character they go so in depth with. Makes you feel deep about them)

TRAILER PARK BOYS (starts slow get past season 1 they just introduce everyone and trust me you'll laugh your ass off. Shit dont get old. Smoke one before you watch it.)

STRANGER THINGS ( only 8 episodes but each like 45 min. Great fucking show man. Interesting)

CHICAGO PD/FIRE/MED/

(Great fucking shows man makes you want more every week haha. Also adding Chicago justice in march. Check it out its made by dick wolf who made law and order. It's connected with svu also all 3 shows "fire pd med" are connected)

Just started 2 new ones however both only season 1. First is Shooter, the other is Gang Related.

They're really really good but too bad there aren't more episodes. Shooter is still releasing more ep's whereas Gang Related has stopped

If someone recommend you 'The OA' don't watch that, it's fucking garbage and they stop a school shooter in the finale by dancing for him

My favourite on TV is the Walking Dead.

You should definitely watch these. It hasn't even finished yet too which adds to the excitement of waiting.

Definitely agree with the Office if you haven't watched it.

My latest favorite shows have been Black Mirror on Netflix, a show set in the future about the dark sides of technology, and The Expanse on SyFy, based on the book series and described by critics as "Game of Thrones set in space"
