Deal with caution.

Looks like he switched it from lifetime to a week's warranty.

At least he replaced your account, be glad.

@OP, also edit this on your sales pages. You'll end up tricking members if not, solely because it literally states: "Warranty: You get a new account if the old one stops working." which on your thread, is lasting for a week.

EDIT: after a PM with OP, Euretyum is simply trying to get free stuff in a very very disrespectful way.
