Thread: [\[Official Group\] Illuminati Recruitment.](#)

?ane - January 6, 2017, 11:00 pm

Occult is now accepting members, the process that will take place will be like the last recruitment. Every member will have an opportunity to write a report which brushes on any of the topics below, I encourage all members to post personal opinion all the while providing evidence/facts to back up your claims. If accepted you will be given a week to show that you will be an active member. We have a new ranking system that seems to work well.

The Occult is a Private SRPP group where we discuss things that make us wonder at night, exploring facts and sharing knowledge with each other. We have original military documents of UFO sightings, down to personal stories with hauntings in them. Our rules within the Occult are simple.

I only ask everyone refrains from trolling, treats others with respect and provide good content to discuss, and I ask any counter arguments are returned without bias but an open mind and outlook on furthering the discussion. Any disrespectful posts/personal attacks will be dealt with immediately I appreciate you all for participating in providing high-quality content.

Occult SRPP Application

For my application I would like to discuss Trump. Since he's a big name in politics today, I would like to discuss why people dislike him & the whole thing with Russian hackers. So let's begin with my people dislike him.

There are a few reasons why people dislike this man. One reason is the hateful speech he put out during his campaign, it is honestly disgusting about what he has said. I for one, partially think some of it was just to win over votes. Another reason is how childish this guy is, he goes on little rants on Twitter about nonsense, one of his latest tweets was bashing Arnold Schwarzenegger over The Apprentice, beyond me how this man can't just keep his focus on his upcoming responsibilities. Another reason that I will state is his current bashing on United States intelligence officials, he is constantly bashing them & disrespecting them.

Now, I would like to discuss this whole thing on the Russian hackers from my point of view. From my point, I don't believe the Russians hacked the elections as the United States is trying to make it seem. What I do believe is they influenced the votes with everything on WikiLeaks. All if not majority of things leaked was in favor of Trump. It just seems like they had their eyes set on Trump becoming President, so they did their best to persuade the American voters to vote for Trump.

Extra

I would just like to state my reason for applying for this section is because I love debating with other people & hearing their standpoints on different subjects. I like to pick at people's mindsets to see why their opinions are different then mine. It's just so interesting to me, I love it. I would also like to thank you for taking the time to review my application. Good luck to all those who are applying as well.
