You could remove that first spoiler entirely, it doesn't help at all. Rather annoying

What are you even saying.. that first spoiler is just a copy and paste of your pms with him. You don't need that because you have an actual picture of the pms in your second spoiler hence why the first is unnecessary.. are you comprehending what I'm saying?

Checking his trust scan might have helped.

You should add this to the deal disputes database:

Lmao .. what the job has to do with it? or being tired? Is checking trust scan that much of a hassle? Smh youv been here long enough to know about this feature. "I'm tired so im just going to login on hf and make some deal." ??????????

Your neg doesn't bother me at all.. its you who lost money due to own stupidity and ignorance not me. I'm sure you feel like a boss now that you have taken your anger out on me .. clown.

You can't even make a decent deal dispute.. and why you provided transaction ss from 2nd of November last year? wtf is this shit? There is no proof here...

This report is invalid.

elfemage - January 8, 2017, 11:48 am

Yeah his reputation sucks too.

A job has to do with the fact that I am tired (maybe you should get one to). Yes I'm long enough here to know there are lots of scammers and skids, but if you kept attention I just came back to HF with a break of 6 months and I forgot the steps you should take to deal with members here.... also... taken my anger out on you? ? If you say so sheriff.

PS: If you keep attention (again) you should see that I should get BTC from the guy who scammed me (betrayed) and my last recent transaction was 2 november. (So I did not get anything)

Have a nice day sir.

Danny Khalifa - January 8, 2017, 12:21 pm

Why the fuck would you even make a deal without checking his trustscan? He's a well known scammer.

It won't get resolved. Read the thread and check the trustscan of the guy that scammed.

imperlin - January 11, 2017, 11:49 pm

White. - January 12, 2017, 3:41 pm

Damn, I hope you get your money back OP.

I would suggest checking the trust scan of users before dealing though.
