Thread: Anyone have little BTC to spare?

ZuGgY - January 7, 2017, 10:49 am

If anyone wouldn't mind giving $5 BTC that they do not need, I would greatly appreciate it. Short on change for something I need to pay for.

Anything helps. Thanks.

I suppose it's against the rules if not you're offering something in return in some sort of way.

I would pay back the person if they wish...
