God of Thunder - January 7, 2017, 11:03 am

Hello Hackforums

I am selling 8 ball pool coins for $0.8 per 1 million in game coins.

I will need your username and password in order to transfer the coins. However, if you wish to transfer the coins yourself, I'll be more than willing to give you a pre-made account.

No vouch copies are available.

Post here or PM me if you're interested in purchasing coins :)

MINIMUM ORDER: 10m coins.

Also, please don't expect me to go first until I can deem you trustworthy enough. I've had numerous people with open scam reports expecting me to go first.

Accounts Available:

500 cash lvl 2 account

Accounts with different amount of coins and cues. (Contact me for more info)

1000 cash account

Your rates are bad and weird.

Your signature advertises 100m for 12$ whilst here you are asking for $0.95/Million. Which would mean for 100 million it would cost $95

Plus your rates are too high tbh.

I need to edit my signature, thanks for reminding me that.

The only reason why 8bpool coin rates dropped drastically last week was because there was this berlin hack which was available for rooted phones. It almost guaranteed 42m coins on every new account. Now that the trick has been patched, the price of 8bpool coins is sure to increase.

Egregious Jr. - March 2, 2017, 12:56 pm

Very overpriced. A guy here did 75M for $5.

I sell legit accounts dude. There's always a chance of getting banned or receiving a warning from miniclip whilst using any third party application to bolster the process of making coins.
