I've watched up to the most recent episode.

I love the show. It's amazing how so many underlying stories occur at the same time and how Raymond always has a ulterior motive to things.

I like how every episode feels special no fillers thus far.

Season 1 is amazing..

Season 2,3,4 meh... not so much. it gets focused mostly on Lizz than actual Blacklists.

That's where they take the underlying stories too far imo.
Still pretty good though.

The first two seasons are honestly amazing. But the third and especially the fourth are just stupid and never ending mysteries.

I haven't seen it, but you've got me interested. I will probably watch the pilot and decide if i want to continue.
