Thread: How does one redeem an amazon gift card from giftrocket?

SirAlex - January 9, 2017, 2:30 am

So I received a giftrocket from a buyer, I was told I could redeem it as an amazon giftcard. But I do not see the option anywhere.

When I open the gift it says "Funds are ready
Collect $100 to your bank account, credit card, or an Amazon.com Gift Card."

However on the next page it only has the option to withdraw it to a bank or credit card. There is no option to get an amazon giftcard.

I tried googling the answer but got not where. What am I doing wrong?

BTW this was an offsite deal at another forum..

It is mostly a scam. They are fraudulent and you cannot necessarily use it to get amazon.com gift cards.

Ah fuck, So has the buyer scammed me or is this whole giftrocket website a scam? I have heard of them but never used them until today

Gift rocket is legit but it is notorious for being a place carders use to purchase gift cards. So if the person sent you a legitimately purchased amazon gift card it will work, otherwise it probably won't
