Thread: Old Skype looks cool asf.

Charm ? - January 9, 2017, 9:22 pm

Hey :)

I was rotating skypes like i do every... 2 months or so to flush old contacts and other stuff.

I looked up how to not get the new username method again and decided to try the older skype and see how that goes.

Why did they make skype so boring?

(Blocked out sensitive info because this is my personal.)

The only thing is it looks a little cluttered and the buttons are kinda old.

Still going to use the latest skype. But, I like it.

What do you think?

Deany - January 9, 2017, 9:23 pm

Damn I miss that UI. Just so simplistic

Lyralei - January 9, 2017, 9:53 pm

I prefer the newer one just above that, Less laggy. Hate the current skype ui and don't really use it anymore.

b?xxy - January 9, 2017, 9:54 pm

Redwall - January 9, 2017, 9:59 pm

Kids will never know this version

Lucrid - January 9, 2017, 10:00 pm

WOW!

I never used that version.. looks wicked. I was expecting like the circa 2011 skype UI and didn't even know this existed.

Black Kodak - January 9, 2017, 10:01 pm

The old skype UI was so simple and easy to use, not that the newer one isnt, just liked the older UI better too.

Lexy- - January 9, 2017, 10:02 pm

This reminds me a lot like Yahoo Messenger.

Lyralei - January 9, 2017, 10:03 pm

please teach me how to get callback status

oRequiem - January 9, 2017, 10:05 pm

Jesus, this brings back memories.

Why must you do this to me :C

Revits - January 9, 2017, 10:28 pm

I that version looks terrible dude, I prefer the new skype

:(. You've seen my Skype, hmu if you ever feel like storytelling, I want to know what cool shit you did back in the day.

Mr. Corleone - January 9, 2017, 10:29 pm

How is this 'simple'

There are so many things on my screen so it's annoying.

Almost every program like Skype moves to simplicity.

You're just drowning in nostalgia.

Vitani's Mate - January 9, 2017, 10:42 pm

Current skype:

Ads..... Ad everyfuckingwhere!

Seriously, it's like cancer.. It starts small and then spreads into one big tumor!

You're just drowning in nostalgia.Lol I didn't say it was simple.

Although this one has a feel that feels easy to use and very customizable. I also get that feeling that if I used this for a month or so, all the buttons I'd need are is muscle memory.

On the newer Skypes you can block the ads using the hosts file:

I'd look into it.

Fudster - January 9, 2017, 11:33 pm

I like it...But I hate it.

Brian Cid - January 9, 2017, 11:48 pm

kids shall never know this version of skype. i used to love it so much tbh

SMFollowers - January 9, 2017, 11:50 pm

I remember when my family had gotten our first Windows XP computer, and I had downloaded skype at a younger age because I used to play this game online. (Pirates of the Caribbean: Online) ; and I talked to friends with my PS3 webcam.

Skype's interface has drastically changed overtime since it's first release.

Still..

Ads basically just a cash grab..

Fucking sick of ads on youtube... EVERYFUCKING VIDEO HAS A FUCKING AD AT THE BEGINNING!!!

Lol may I recommend to you YouTube red or AdBlock for YouTube? Lmao rn.

If your on mobile then ig you screwed with ads

frsnix - January 10, 2017, 12:21 am

Interesting how much Skype has changed over the years. Wish I would have registered by the time this classic was out.

The Lowlife - January 10, 2017, 12:22 am

Miss the old skype, had some nostalgia seeing that again.

Skrill - January 10, 2017, 12:25 am

Reminds me of MSN back in the day, good times.

Misery - January 10, 2017, 12:41 am

Damn, I remember that UI. Good times!

Although I am a bigger fan of the new UI.

SIM-403479 - January 10, 2017, 12:42 am

The old MSN was my favourite. So easy to use etc.

thrudda - January 10, 2017, 1:14 am

This UI brings back memories

Xalence - January 10, 2017, 1:19 am

I love how it is not all clean, minimal, and soulless like new GUI styles.
