Get something people want and are willing to click to get it.

For example, a download. Uploaders make a lot of money from Adfly because they mask their file download link with the service. People who want to download the file need to click the link in order to gain access to the download link.

It isn't only limited to file downloads btw. You can easily do the same by telling others about a good website they might be interested in.

For example :

1. Make a landing page with content about a product or service.
2. Mask an affiliate link with Adfly and place it on the page.
3. Rank it on the first page of Google for several keywords/keyphrases that get a lot of searches each month.
4. People find your page and may click the Adfly link. The affiliate link may benefit you as well because you could get a sale during the process.

Of course, you'll need additional skills to be successful at this such as learning about search engine optimization, HTML/CSS and link building.

My suggestion is to not even use adfly, not worth it.

Spam it everywhere. It's the best and only way to make it to the big bucks, just use it everywhere you go and post links.
