Thread: Allowing The Sell of VCC's

BriannKrebs HF Fed - January 11, 2017, 5:17 am

Maybe consider allowing the selling of VCC's i mean what the hell is the harm in selling a VCC with no money on it or very little amounts... I mean you allow the sell of pre loaded gift cards on here? Why not VCC's?

It is Omniscient's forum and what rules he has made is the ones that will be.

Not going to happen. This can lead to a whole bunch of problems regarding fraud.

You could had read Help Docs. Also there's a compilation of denied suggestions and those which don't get accepted ever. Though omniscient might consider in future.

Exactly what I thought.

I don't get those users, why ask for such a ridiculous thing?

One of the "main" rules is NOT to discuss financial fraud (PayPal fraud, etc.).

So why allow a VCC, this place would be FULL of VCC's scammers who'll sell used VCC's or even stolen / not-working ones.

It will decrease the quality of HF's content a lot, so to prevent members being scammed & to get into legal issues (PayPal, busines related issues, etc.) the rule was very clear about VCC's. ?
