Thread: \$400 BTC Giveaway -Winner picked - Plugs

Papa Cuda - January 11, 2017, 1:08 pm

Good afternoon Hack Forums

I'm feeling extra generous today. I've been working on a lot of projects that I have very high expectations for and things overall have been pretty damn good. I'm excited to start off this new year with a $400 giveaway.

Why so much? Because i love hack forums. I think that each and every member here has the potential to do something amazing, despite what anyone thinks or says. Maybe someone can use this money to help them kick off a successful business venture or win a million dollars gambling. Who tf knows to be honest but what's most important is that I hope this money goes to something important. So anyway...

RULES OF THE GIVEAWAY

- 1) You can only enter the giveaway one (1) time, if I see you enter twice I'll completely disregard you when it's time to pick the winner.
- 2) To enter, leave a post below as well as what you're going to do with the money you recieve (it doesn't need to be anything specific or super meaningful, if you tell me you're gonna gamble it away that's your choice and doesn't mean you won't win), however I will be reviewing each entry to pick a winner so, make it worth it.
- 3) No scam reports

Good luck to everyone who enters.

Peace ?

Mr. Robot - January 11, 2017, 1:10 pm

Thanks for the giveaway mate.

Personally I will use the money to pay my bills (rent and medical) and it would be a huge help to me. PM me if you want to know anymore info on my situation.

K???er - January 11, 2017, 1:10 pm

I would use it to buy a new laptop for school, anyways thanks for the giveaway, OP!

Gt403cyl - January 11, 2017, 1:10 pm

Posting to enter,

I'll be most likely using the money to upgrade my PC or put it towards more tools for working on vehicles.

Black Kodak - January 11, 2017, 1:11 pm

Hey cuda, first of all thanks for the giveaway man!

With this money, I will first off buy my mom, dad and brother all some late late christmas gifts, I will also donate some of it to charity(buy some food for shelters around here)... The rest I will probably spend buying stuffz that I need.

Thanks for this giveaway man, god bless.

XavierA7X - January 11, 2017, 1:12 pm

Thank you for such a generous giveaway, sir cudacore :D

I hope to buy a laptop with decent configurations for coding. Running a pentium 4 PC sure is disturbing. So far, I've gathered ~100$ freelancing(Still in High School) and a proper laptop/PC with a fast RAM and processor would provide a suitable environment for working with 2 OS(VirtualBox).

Good Luck everyone :D

Have a great day!

Germany69420 - January 11, 2017, 1:14 pm

Posting to enter. I would use the money to invest into my social media account.

SIM-2908357 - January 11, 2017, 1:14 pm

Damn Cudacore coming in clutch with the giveaway.

Wyatt Garcia - January 11, 2017, 1:15 pm

If I win the 400$ BTC I will invest it to my business and hopefully make it successful with that.

Thank you for this giveaway OP, would be awesome to win. Good luck to everyone else!

SIM-2763166 - January 11, 2017, 1:15 pm

I'll use the money to buy myself a decent DSLR-camera, to revive my YouTube career, as my old camera got stolen in a robbery. Not only that, but I'd also need a new computer to continue pursue my GFX career, as my computer got stolen as well. The money would go towards that too.

Thank you so much OP for this great, generous contest. I wish everyone luck & I'm crossing my fingers for myself and everyone else participating!

Good luck! <3

Deany - January 11, 2017, 1:18 pm

I would probably just save it for things I might need in the future having to do with tech. Thanks for doing this contest.

Regulus - January 11, 2017, 1:23 pm

This is one amazing contest by you.

Thanks a lot for doing this!

Before posting, I don't think I deserve to win this more than anyone else. Everyone deserves a chance to win this.

Reason I should win and what I will do with the money:

First of all I want to thank you once again OP for making this contest on HF, it really means a lot.

And if I were to win this contest and the money I would quickly use it to exchange on Forex since I am going to Thailand in March.

My dad paid me and my whole family for a vacation in Thailand and it would mean so much to have some pocket money down there since I don't have so much in my savings over.

And the last thing I want to do down there is to live on someone else's money in the family.

This would be to a huge help for me. Right now I am doing my best to save up so I can get some savings and pocket money to have down there but it's hard without a income.

I am all the time trying to figure out how to make the money, not only for the vacation in Thailand, also in general because there's always nice to have an income.

So to make it short, I would use the money to exchange it to Thailand Baht so I can use it as pocket money down there in March.

It would be to a huge help if I won this.

But as I also said before, I don't deserve this more than anyone else. I am pretty sure other people would deserve this a lot more than me.

Thanks a lot once again for doing this contest and giving us all a chance. You're amazing!
Have an amazing day! <3

Larsenpower - January 11, 2017, 1:25 pm

Neos07 - January 11, 2017, 1:26 pm

Posting to enter, Thanks alot for the amazing giveaway.

What I think I will do with the $400 is that I will use it in trading, I already been trading in stocks / currencies / BTC on an online platform, and a $400 plus in my balance would increase my profit.

Thanks again, and good luck anyone.

Tee Plow - January 11, 2017, 1:28 pm

Navy - January 11, 2017, 1:36 pm

Thank you for the giveaway. I'm planning on taking my father on a trip back to his birthplace (The Philippines) before he leaves us. I would try to sell the BTC in order to try and pay for a portion of the trip. This would definitely put a large dent in the cost.

Thanks again and Happy New Year

webdev77 - January 11, 2017, 1:36 pm

Honestly if I win this I'm putting a sizable chunk towards a friend's birthday and the remaining will go towards advertising a project of mine. This is extremely generous and I look forward to seeing what everyone wants to do should they win. Hopefully someone logs on to HF in two months to a nice surprise.

$400...

What would I do with so much money?

Let me think about that and break it down for you.

Start Amount: $400

Buy me an adult drink as a celebration: -$60

"Gift" you an award: -$25

Buy 3P1C: -$15

Buy Rich Bitch Award: -$50

Go into the small favor/reward section & giveaway $20 total: -$20

End amount: $230

I'll spend $25 on another member (giveaway), $200 will be saved or will be invested (on or offline), and the $5 will be used to cover any fees during this spending spree.

Although it's free money, I'd like to support my bank account & give back to the community too.

Thanks for the giveaway cudacore, you got my vote in 2020.

With the big prize money I think in all honesty I will use into making other people happy. Thanks man. If I win I will utilize this 400 dollars and make it into 40,000. I am tired of this bullshit way of life, I bult up a few hundred and lost it to a shitty investment. I will go through whatever the fuck it takes to pop off, I have the drive, determination, and motivation. As well as this, I will take this $400 to $4000, invest precisely 2,673 into an account to sit away and will invest 1,000 in an emergency fund only to bring this 400 back up to my ultimate 2 year goal. Thank you very much.

test - January 11, 2017, 5:46 pm

Thanks for the giveaway OP.

I will probably invest it in XMR if the price has not fluctuated too much from now. If it is too high - I will all in on Bustabit for a 2x and either giveaway or donate the other $400 I make.
Good luck to everyone else entering!

?Border?ineExtr(A) - January 11, 2017, 5:47 pm

Since I sold off all of my BTC and I'm expecting a higher dip before I buy back in, I could actually save these long term just in case of an unexpected rise. Basically investment.

Or I'll just blow it away on hookers and blackjack.

Fadó - January 11, 2017, 5:48 pm

Thanks for the giveaway man. If I win I'll use the money to purchase a good lens for the new camera that I bought.

???? Shana - January 11, 2017, 5:48 pm

Currently I am supporting my mom and my girlfriend financially while going to school full time. working part-time on the weekends, and trying to make money online. I need to take out loans for tuition so I would put the $400 towards food/gas

?ane - January 11, 2017, 5:50 pm

First, thanks for the opportunity. I would probably use the money for fixing the front end in my car and so I can make it to the US Army Recruiter. Good luck to everyone who enters!

Pluxo - January 11, 2017, 5:54 pm

Posting to enter. Thank you for doing this for the community, I'm sure whoever wins will appreciate this very much.

The reason I'm entering is because I was slapped with a $458 court fee, and I've already made some payments on it. That's not the only reason why though. I've been driving with a cracked windshield for 3 years and on 1/7/17 I got pulled over and was issued a fix-it ticket. The windshield just got replated today 1/11/17 because I was issued 10 days to fix it or else I get summoned to court. The new windshield cost me $286. I currently am unemployed and looking for employment (I'm not a lazy bum, it's just super hard to find a job in my location). I've been looking for a job for quite some time now and I am guaranteed one in February, but you would help me out a ton. I would most likely help other HF members to pass on the good deed too. I can show you pictures of the documentation of everything said above. I have the fix-it ticket, court documents, etc.

Renowned - January 11, 2017, 5:58 pm

I gotta jump in on this for sure, thanks for this amazing giveaway brother. Would really help out, planning on taking my girl somewhere special on her birthday (March 15th), would love to take her to Venice, this would certainly help.

BTB™ - January 11, 2017, 6:56 pm

First of all thanks for the giveaway brother.

What I will do with the money -

My mother expired in the last month, that is, December 2016. She went in to Dementia and her mind got unstable in her last month's. I with my father have thought of opening an NGO (trust) that will help such patients. The money I win would be of great help for the said cause.

Thanks once again!

DooSaM - January 11, 2017, 7:43 pm

I'll put the money towards my online business that I plan on launching later this year.

Thanks for the giveaway OP!

Well, seeing as I'm getting out of college soon, I'll probably use it to buy myself a few nice clothes for interviews and getting jobs, seeing as I haven't had a chance or opportunity to do so. Hopefully I'll be able to land a decent job and continue living on my own.

Good luck to everyone!

Melon12 - January 12, 2017, 9:09 am

Request a piece :)

I have played for 14 years and teach students.

I can play most pieces at a competent level, it has to be something melodic. I can usually transcribe a piece in an hourish if the music isn't available.

SIM-2015410 - January 12, 2017, 6:19 pm

Winning this contest would help me out more than you know. While I love helping others for free, I can't ignore the fact that unfortunately I now have massive university fees and bills to pay. So I would have to say that the money would go straight towards those bills if I won. University is just so expensive and I wonder whether I am actually getting a step forward or a step behind, because so far education has cost me well into 5 digits and with my small income it seems like a massive mountain. It would mean tonnes to me because I really struggle to make ends meet with my low-paying part time job, and it would show me that good things do come back to you if you put the effort in to help people. And without a doubt the winnings would indirectly go straight back into this community too, because the more I see contests like this, the more I am encouraged that there are a lot of awesome members on here that are worth the time and effort. Its so awesome to see another really big giveaway on here - to see that there are actually a lot of kindhearted members - and I really hope that one day after I've paid off my loan that I'll be able to bless the community in a similar way. But until then, I'll continue to work for the people here in other ways that I can afford, namely giving my knowledge and help out for free.

Thanks cudacode ? ?

M?xim - January 12, 2017, 6:26 pm

Oh this is a really generous giveaway, thank you Cuda.

If I would win the money, I would spend it all on buying something for my father who I live together with. Maybe a TV for his bedroom with a wallmount or something. If not that, I would buy him monitors for his desktop. He works with computer science, so computers are his passion.

Because, he has given me so much in life. We only have each other but we are happy. So I always try to give back to him, studying hard now to make sure he'll never has to care about money in the future. This giveaway would let me give him something he would really appreciate.

Thank you!

wander is a multi dwc - January 12, 2017, 10:42 pm

$400 is a lot of money to me. My current income is barely enough to pay for all my monthly bills, whilst doing odd jobs on the Internet to save up money in case I have to pay for something immediately. One of the things I'm saving up for is to buy a nice laptop.

It has been two years since I bargained for and purchased a Lenovo laptop for $250. I've spent a good amount of quality time with this laptop of mine. It has served me well in many of my online ventures. The laptop's already slowing down and there has been many defects that I had to fix, instead of buying a new one. I know it sucks, but I have no choice now but to replace this laptop before it completely stops. The fund received from this giveaway can partially, but definitely help me in buying a new laptop of my one that is much, much better than this one. If I loose this laptop, then my main gateway to the Internet is done for. Hope you can understand the situation I'm in. Good luck to the other participants :)

I don't really have any large amounts of cash just lying around to "invest" or "play" with if you like.

All my money seems to be tied up into bills or paying for the next thing. So if I won I'd literally invest it into some cryptocurrency and grow it.

Hopefully if I made big, I could financially give back to the community. One can dream.

What kind of project I had in mind is something I would figure out till I received that money, since it isn't sure that I will be the winner, but once again, I will see what I will think of and I do hope I will win, if not, luck wasn't on my side then. ^^

THANKS FOR this !

I'll use the money for my project that I'm working on for 3 months. Something that I really gave up everything for it. And I want to be done with it and live my dream !

tcsh - January 19, 2017, 11:28 am

Ha, It be crazy to win this huge sum.

Thanks for hosting this.

I got a project I've been working on for awhile now, website is ready and also a separate website containing a store on the same niche. It will be a website about a specific, very popular, not that present on the Internet sports activity :)

The google numbers are amazing in terms of traffic and people searching for information on it but websites are in the dozens and no authority in the niche yet.

So I'm planning to use the money and build that (domain, hosting, advertising, etc) into a nice community on the niche with relevant information and weekly articles, eventually planning to integrate some ads (simple, nothing hardcore) and get the store moving.

Generating money, having an authority on the sport on the web and providing valid quality info - everybody wins!

Thanks and good luck :)

Crystallize. - January 19, 2017, 11:32 am

It's my mates birthday in March and he's big into CSGO skins he can't afford, winning this would make the burden on my wallet a bit less of an issue for his present xD

I'd lie and say I'm putting it into my messaging app but I'm making it mostly peer to peer over the next week ?

Anubis - February 6, 2017, 1:49 pm

Thanks for the Giveaway!

I'd personally use this money for travel. My best friends had invited me to go to a concert of our favorite artist in a country near me, around 350 kilometres away.

The ticket is not that expensive, but however considering accommodation it's expensive so I've had to refuse.

This would cover even more then I need. I don't want to ask my parents tho, because everytime I ask them for money I feel ashamed, as they already pay me rent and university.

Before anyone says "Go get a job" "Lazy ass" or something like that I'd like to tell you that I live in an "underdeveloped" country where it's not that easy to get a job and around 50% of the population is unemployed.

Tr0janVirus - February 6, 2017, 1:55 pm

I would like to participate, with my $400 BTC I would like to invest it and in the end I would make another giveaway just like how you did.

allonon - February 6, 2017, 8:47 pm

This is an amazing give away. Honestly I never win anything so i don't gamble or rarely signup for things. So if i did win it would be kinda neat. I'd give the BTC to someone in need locally. I currently help veteran acclimate to civilian life when they return from tours so i'd use the funds to take someone to a movie or eat dinner, you know normal civilian stuff. I'd probably give $100 to a charity that deserves it and another $100 would go to this gpu i need to ship off for repairs. Thanks for your consideration, trust me it wouldn't go to waste.

severos - February 6, 2017, 9:38 pm

Well, if I won then there are 2 options I'm considering:

1-I'll finally buy my first android phone (throwing in other savings as well), haven't picked which one yet, but thinking of google nexus, probably will be asking around once I get the money.

2-Find some profitable investment around and try earn more BTC...

and if I managed to get a GF by the time I win, I'll buy her something she likes, otherwise I'll spoil my parents a bit instead.

gtpagm - February 7, 2017, 12:08 am

Hi , Cuda

If I win the money I will propably invest them in my vpn site. Last month we managed to be in top 50 VPN's and we are planning on registering as a real company, or improve our script. Those money would be extremely useful.

Whiz4rd - February 7, 2017, 1:41 pm

Thanks for this, I'd actually like to add more to my very little investment in cryptocurrency / digital currency -- along with it would be me, investing more time and effort, which can be done. Once the there'd be a return to it, definitely giving back to the community is what I'll do first, the same as what you do right now.

Also, I have and I am donating in our local soup kitchen / feeding kitchen which is called Duterte's Kitchen, also if I have ample time IRL, I'd be volunteering as well. Their main purpose is to feed the hungry street children (mostly) and also others who'd come to ask for food.

$400 is actually a big amount, I don't want to see my self actually getting all of it, it would be so selfish. If ever you'd consider me the winner, please split it to 3 other people giving us a $100 each or maybe even 7 other people leaving us at $50 each or even 79 people which would give us at $5 each, making more winners and also giving people their chance who may want to start something off. No matter how big/small the amount is, free money is free money, and sometimes that's just what would ignite a person / idea to get going.

You know, personally, I know this forum has a lot of untapped talents and ideas, brilliant ones perhaps but the problem is that they just don't have the access to the exact resources which they'd really need in order for them to excel, but with people like you and giveaways/contests like this, it would and may jumpstart someone's career in here ?

Nevertheless, I'd like to thank you wholeheartedly for doing this, you're already a contributor to the forum (thanks to all the contributors around) and by doing so, it helps the forum keep its activity going and also hosting such event actually helps people.

Good luck to all participants ?

hobble - February 7, 2017, 3:53 pm

Kashira - February 7, 2017, 5:34 pm

Hello first of all i would like to thank you for doing this, it's not everyday someone gives away this amount of money.

I am aware others are in need of it too but will still share with you why i would like to win.

If i would win the money it would go towards a day out with my GF who deserves it.
It would either go towards a present for her directly or it would be used for maybe a dinner or even something greater it all depends on what is possible.

Ofcourse i could just write up a story of how i have to pay bills and medication like half of these users will do but i like to be honest.

If the money would've gone towards useless shit i would've said so.

The money would mean alot tho, it would make 2 people happy instead of just me.

Goodluck to everyone participating and have a good one.

KelseyM - February 18, 2017, 7:21 pm

Hello, and thanks for the giveaway. I have awful luck with these things, but will give it a try. Good luck to all.

What I would do with the money.. Well, at the rate BTC is raising these days I would hold it for just a little bit ;)

Honestly though, everything I do online pays for bills, shopping, and food. So I'd sell it off for PayPal, and use it for just that. Not super exciting I know, but important.. Nonetheless.

No?orious - February 18, 2017, 8:34 pm

I think I'd invest it, or try and begin to see if I can daytrade with a certain amount and make something out of it by doing my homework. I'm unsure, it's hard to speculate. As of now, that's probably the most reasonable answer.

Edit: I also think I would buy an award to start my row. Most likely try start up a Shopify store with advertisement since I have a good amount of knowledge on trends and unique niches as well as graphic design to appeal to the masses.

It's fun to imagine it though.

Thanks for the opportunity in your contest! ?

Well my girlfriend is about 7 months pregnant and we have yet to buy a carseat. A good one that I would actually feel comfortable using is around 300$ so most of it would go towards that since we can not really afford to get one.

Hello there! Thank you for doing this.

If I were picked the winner, i have $500/$1500 left to pay for school/classes for community college, payments due in April and May. :)

Thank you for doing this & good luck to all.

Gem - March 6, 2017, 5:03 am

I'll enter this contest.

I'd put the money towards getting myself an apartment so I can study in peace.

And host parties ofcourse.

Currently, all I have to live for monthly is about $130, so there isnt much fun to be had. Or anything for that matter.

I've also recently struggled with bills and having to borrow money from others.

I don't want to get too much into this.

By getting an apartment, my study will up my monthly pay to almost $1k/month.
Very generous of you, OP. I thank you.

skorpionasa - March 6, 2017, 5:17 am

I would use the money towards a GPU cracking rig to help out and increase the k/s of WPA Community Cracking that soxrox and others have started in the Hacking/Wifi section.

$400 dollars would help a lot because GPU rigs are expensive and I haven't pursued this project yet because of the cost. This would be an awesome headstart!

AnONiM94 - March 6, 2017, 3:12 pm

I'll use the money for my travelling trips!

JaneTheBizBuilder - March 7, 2017, 4:32 am thanks for the golden heart to repay and genuinely help the community it would be a great help to me if i could have this 400 bucks

i just got back to internet marketing after failures in couple attempts of offline business investments that got me into bankruptcy and a failed relationship so my aim will be to be able to earn a consistent income to feed myself and cover my debts this generous 400usd would be used in setting up a viral marketed online business models to help fueling the project it will be spent on script, web design and development as well as marketing

thanks again for the giveaway hope to be able to giveaway like you when I can afford so

TheVBScripiter - March 7, 2017, 5:07 am

Posting to enter this contest, may the luckiest member win!

What I'd do with $400 BTC.. to be 100% honest.

Spent $100 at myself (personal stuff/clothing) and the other $300 would go into a project.

CPA project for $300 would be very profitable, perhaps creating a Shopify store (don't got a credit card..) so $300 would be a huge benefit for me to request a credit card (above 21 of age so no worries) which I could invest those $300 at for a domain, outsourcing stuff and creating ads.

#Infinite - March 7, 2017, 5:16 am

Posting to enter, I'm probably going to spend and invest it on some gear for my YouTube channel.

Lexxi. - March 7, 2017, 5:33 am donnie.jogos - March 7, 2017, 5:45 am

I'll prob just use the $400 to invest into more projects and try to turn it into more money.

????? - March 7, 2017, 10:56 am

Introduction

First of all, I would like to thank you for your amazing generosity. It's not every day that someone gives away this much money, and I really appreciate that. Since I've never been in that good of a financial situation myself, winning this giveaway would essentially mean I'd have the most money I've ever had at once. Honestly, I would be eternally grateful to you if I could win this.

What I would do with the money

I would use it to buy a few awards for my account, and after that I would put it in my PoloniEx for lending so I make a small percentage. After that, it would go toward projects I want to work on. I'm still learning to program and all that, so to actually be able to put some money into projects would give me a massive boost. For example, I'm currently working on a website, and for that I'm using a free hosting service someone got me because I can't currently afford to get myself a better hosting service. This does, however, mean that some of the things I'd like to do with the website are simply impossible because of the limitations of the hosting. If I were to have some more BTC in my wallet, I'd be able to actually go out and buy better hosting so I can try everything out instead of only the things that can be done for free.

But of course, that doesn't make up for the full $400. If I win this giveaway I plan to host some (smaller) giveaways of my own. That way I can finally give back to this community that has taught me so much, because I realize that so far I haven't really done that much for the community and I've been looking for a way to do so for a long time. While it wouldn't really be the same as it actually having been my own money, but honestly I know from experience that winning even a $5 giveaway can make your day (or even your week, depending on your situation) and I want to do that for other people.

A + - March 7, 2017, 8:27 pm

I'm honestly having some troubles with bills and that sort of thing. If I win I'll put it towards this months 2k worth of bills, and probably spend about $5 and buy a 6-pack of beer haha. I think that I've earned it ?. Thanks a lot homie.

Thank you for that! ?

Hello, thank you for the amazing contest. If I win this money, I would have it transferred to PayPal and use it to pay my house mortgage which is behind by two months. As you can see, I've been trying to provide services on HF to try and scratch up a little money, in which most of it I've put up towards my mortgage that my father left me before he passed. I only owe 15K on it, which isnt bad.. But it will be if i lose it. I'll feel as if i let my father down and my kid and myself down.. Anything I could get is needed, as i'm struggling with a minimum wage job working fast food, previously I had a warehouse job, and this wasn't an issue I was getting 12 an hour, they laid me off. now i'm only getting 7.81 an hour. and can't catch it up. With this, I would be able to catch it up a little bit more than it has been. I just don't want to lose the roof over my head for me and my child. It's a struggle as it is, having to provide everything and not being able to catch up. Thanks for the contest my friend. Good luck to all entrants.

I actually chose 12 winners over the course of the past hour but I'm sticking with you be the overall winner.

Once again congratulations.

I don't want to sound rude (I really don't want, and thank you for that contest, you are awesome!) but how can you really "extinguish" or feel what is more genuine than all the others? There are over 59 pages in your thread! Mine was genuine too though, I am really going to Portugal in September with the Erasmus program (totally waiting for that).

Again thank you for the nice contest and congratulations Plugs, spend every penny wisely ?!

No?orious - March 11, 2017, 6:16 pm

Congratulations Plugs! Thanks for the contest, Cuda. Feels like it went to someone much more deserving of it than most if it is genuine, good on him.

Grim - March 11, 2017, 10:03 pm congrats to the winner! dont use it all in one place ?

I think we need some kind of new requirement like "prove it" since some of them unfortunately are liars. Nonetheless, congratulations to the winner I guess.

Sam has his own view on your decision, it really doesn't matter.

Next time, if you decide to do one of these again, if you want to help people, and you even chose 12 worthy users this time, I think you should split the prize to help as many as possible. For example, $400 split four ways would still help a lot to those four users in need.

Yeah I was thinking about that as well, I was also thinking about making a team of 3 or 4 judges to help choose.

That would be possible, but you'd also have to make sure the judges don't pick a friend to win, or let themselves be bribed

Yeah that would be an issue but I have a few people I trust wouldn't take a bribe.

This is what fannas did, he picked some judges for his $4000 contest and the judges didn't know about each other. Then the judges voted on the most worthy user for each prize and decided the winners that way. They were also awarded $250 because they couldn't participate in the contest. I think that would be the most fair way to judge it.

You mean "distinguish"? It doesn't matter how he picked it anyway. It's his money and he didn't say he was going to pick the most genuine in the OP.

Extinguish - verb (used with object)

to put out (a fire, light, etc.); put out the flame of (something burning or lighted):
to extinguish a candle.
to put an end to or bring to an end; wipe out of existence; annihilate:
to extinguish hope.
3.
to obscure or eclipse, as by superior brilliance.
4.
Law. to discharge (a debt), as by payment.
