Good luck in selling your project bro. Hopefully someone will take this on a develop it further. GLWS! ?

Cosa_Nostra - January 15, 2017, 11:13 am

Very decent and steady RAT.

GLWS!

Kind Regards,

Ryan() - January 15, 2017, 11:20 am

Looks like a well developed rat, GL on selling it :)

Avira - January 15, 2017, 12:08 pm

:O that UI is fucking HAWT.

glws.

TheMockingBird - January 15, 2017, 12:10 pm

Looks like a nice RAT for a nice price... GLWS ! ?

thank you all guys i really appreciate it online ... pm me for any questions

VirtualMon3y - January 16, 2017, 2:11 pm

This is a great price for the rights to a project like this.

It looks nice, but there is a lot of competition in the RAT software market now. What functions or features differentiate Comet Rat from LL, NanoCore, or IM?

Tee Plow knows his shit when it comes to this type of stuff. I've been working with him for months on various projects and he has exceeded expectation multiple times.

Huge vouch for tee plow. Don't hesitate to deal with him.

thanks buddy for the vouch ?

still selling this pm me if you have any questions

warpje - January 19, 2017, 3:24 am

But you releases this for free right? I still have it...

Whats the difference between both?

Anyway GLWS! Good programmer knows his stuff

i'm not selling the source code , i'l selling the rights of this project so u can develop it and sell it or do whatever you want !

KingCoin - January 19, 2017, 10:50 am

Maybe to expensive to a open source a7383532 - January 19, 2017, 10:52 am

Looks good. I use this for my ratting. Would'nt buy though.

BapeZ - January 20, 2017, 10:51 am

Nice that I have downloaded the source code before you wanted money for it.? Good luck with selling.

May I ask how you're transmitting data from the client to the server? I mean, are you using some sort of serialization? Sending strings such as COMMAND|DATA?
