Can't believe no one made a thread on it before. What the hell are you doing? You all need to go watch the S3 right away and if you didn't watch the two previous seasons, get your ass in gear, because that's the next serie you'll be using your sorry life to grind on. And if you think the ratings on MAL are just for show, I fucking dare you to watch the whole serie, watch S3 and tell me you didn't get into it as if you weren't into the Anime itself.

Oh? Even though there's no magic and guns in it? Surprising.
