Thread: Demigra || Custom Theme || New General Discussion, and Technology Forum

Twin Future - January 15, 2017, 9:04 pm

Site Name: Demigra

Site URL: <http://demigra.com/index.php>

Site Description: Demigra is a forum that revolves around General Discussion, and Technology. Engage in Innovative Technological Discussions, or Discuss your Daily Life Activities here with us. We cover Life Topics, Gaming, Cinema, Social Media, Webmastery, Graphics, Money, etc.
Unique Features: Custom Theme, Unique Design, Graphics, Helpful Staff.

Demigra is a new General Discussion, and Technology forum. It's work in progress so we ask that you don't expect far too much from us. Rome wasn't built in a day. We decided to release before adding any plugins or anything so that our members can have input as far as that.

Things like: Upgrades, Groups, Awards, etc. Probably won't be added all that soon. We don't want to rush those things, this is about building a successful forum versus money whoring. We hope to build a nice community with the help of our members.

Coming soon: Thread Design, Advertising Signature, Sticky in Lounge, Paid Advertisement, New Logo(current logo is temporary), More Theme Edits, Two different theme color ways (one Black, and one Blue)

We have three staff members:

Grimoire - Which is Myself

Malevolent - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=691462>

01010011 - A Personal friend of mine

We Won't be adding anymore staff members anytime soon.

All Feedback is appreciated, Join us today and be a part of building a new excellent community!

also, if you don't receive a Verification Email when registering please check your Spam folder.

Site seems nice, Interesting name, does it mean anything or just something random you came up with? My main criticism is that the theme reminds me of Hackforums theme, not sure if your intending to do that, or not, not a big issue just some food for thought :)

It's just a name I came up with. Thanks for the input! As far as the theme, I was aiming for something that screams activity like the hackforums theme and was also pretty simplistic. This was the outcome :)

If you can't join the forum as a regular member and be active, then I see no future for you as a staff member at Demigra. Sorry.

CALIFORNIAN - January 16, 2017, 10:06 am

Looks like a wannabe HackForums.

+1 good choice on that. Not bad of a site, not too many sections, you should bring in more 'technology' sections though if you're going to advertise it as such. General Discussion easily outweighs technology. Also, remove all your useless buttons(Social Buttons, Awards) that just lead to 404 pages. Apart from that, it isn't too bad.

Well I gave each board a ton of Prefix's for everyone to use, that way when we get bigger it'll be easier to sort it out into more independent boards. I tried to make the board list as small and simple as possible. The Technology board is only one section because everything tech based is to be posted there for now, same reason as the other boards. It has a ton of Prefix's for users to use when posting so things will be sorted. The buttons are just place holders, will be actually linked to something of course once the forum grows.

What do you mean you can't do anything?

BorgEntomon - January 19, 2017, 9:00 am

I can't get my activation code to go to my email. it doesn't work.

Well did you check your spam folder like stated in the OP?

BorgEntomon - January 19, 2017, 1:21 pm

I did, and I got nothing. I sent the admin an email.

Hmm, okay. I just activated all users who were "Awaiting Activation" so you should be able to login and all that now. I'll set accounts to automatically activate until I get this issue resolved. Thanks for letting me know.

BorgEntomon - January 20, 2017, 9:50 am

thanks. Everything works now

I thought about signing up but mobile theme is crap.

That seems like a rather dumb theme to say, considering most sites don't even have a mobile theme. If you don't enjoy the mobile theme then don't visit the site on mobile, simple solution. No need to be a dickhead.

I'm not being a dickhead, I'm being honest. I'm not going to sit here and say I enjoy the site when I can't even access it with my phone which I'm on more than my PC.

Then don't bother joining, you are being a dickhead. You could've said what you said without being so insulting about it. Therefore making you a dickhead.

Thanks

The fact that you think cancer is a joke shows how immature you are.

This forum's theme looks like it was made by a wannabe high school 'developer/designer' who has '3+' years of experience (on Wix.com). You're so obviously multi'ing the OP it's crazy. This forum is dead, rightfully so.

But who said I was hiding? You seem highly offended for no reason, I find that hilarious.
