Thread: Need Some Inspiration! For Single Cover Artwork

Jake Johnson - January 17, 2017, 6:58 am

I am working on designing artwork for a single cover right now.

The song is titled "Online Stalker" and they want social media heavily incorporated on the cover as that is what the song is about. A girl is liking every one of his pictures on instagram, sending him messages and he even blocks her on twitter and she still thinks they are a thing.

I would appreciate it if any fellow designers have any ideas they wouldn't mind sharing to help spark ideas in my head. Having one of those moments where creativity isn't at its highest right now lol.

Thanks

Maybe show it clear that she's blocked on whatever and make her with hearts around and show that she's in love with him yet. Mby. Difficult case. You need something really creative.

Thats one of the ideas I was thinking of. Like maybe have just a hand with a phone in and have a bunch of blocked things on the screen but then have hearts coming out or all around the phone.

This one is a challenging one to come up with an idea for lol.
