Thread: Scammed by Mr. Robot | RESOLVED I AM THE L337 H4CK3R NOW.

Wakka - January 18, 2017, 9:29 pm

This is what happens when a white knight becomes a dark horse.

I entered his competition found here <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5524638>

I have yet to receive my reward also Mr. Robot has added me to their ignore list.

Whilst I can appreciate that the reward is only small, it would have meant a lot to me to have that URL redirecting to my hackforums profile, it's very unfair that he has wasted mine and other users time if I would have known I was not going to actually receive the reward I would not have entered the competition.

Since he has me on his ignore list, I will also add him to my ignore list as I don't wish to hear from him now, the damage has already been done.

I will also be adding this to the deal disputes database.

Ultimately he tries to portray me as the scammer, when in actual fact it is him who is the scammer.

As you can see his website does not redirect to my hf profile as of 19/01/2017 05:32 and he has had no excuse he has been on constantly.

Truth - January 18, 2017, 9:30 pm

wtf, what kind of competition is that? lol smh

Because I have not received any award and scammers need to be brought to the attention of the community.

Mr. Robot - January 18, 2017, 9:35 pm

Site currently does not redirect as it is changing on their end. Deal with it.

This thread was obviously created because he upset you by putting you on ignore. Get a grip.

I was blackmailed by those members and no I might have let this slide but there is principle involved here, he calls me a scammer without having concrete evidence yet here is concrete evidence of him infact scamming me.

There is principle involved here guys, it was his obligation to have that dns pointed at me, however it does not therefore this deal dispute is perfectly valid.

Thanks for the PM on my personal facebook, contacting your parents.

Leroy Jethro Gibbs - January 18, 2017, 10:08 pm

I would suggest giving it 24/48 hours before making a thread like this. DNS might take longer for the domain than just a click of refresh. Just wait then if there is still not a working domain, go from there. I do agree he didn't scam you as it was a contest. But it would be valid to post a community alert or actually try to resolve the issue with him directly.

DNS was going to a blank page as during the contest someone suggested I redirect to <http://wakkaisascammer.co.nf/> oops I mean <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=profile> but ofcourse that didn't work just by putting it in for whatever reason.
