I haven't we RS in awhile but I'm subscribed to A Friend and I saw that. Sorry to whoever lost money :(

Ultimately that bow was going to devalue every other boss drop so it's a welcome change.

i think everyone saw this tbh.

a bow that powerful that went from its first sale to 2147m down to 1.4b, yeah definitely gonna go lower after all the complaints.. jagex will nerf it as if people are complaining it isn't oldschool.. they dont wanna head in that direction

they have nerfed it after all complaints hence why it dropped*

Kind of glad they nerfed it.

It was pretty much overpowered in every aspect.

Sorry to all that lost money tho, rip.

I would never buy a new item for this reason.

Only ever saw people use this item at bandos, glad they dropped it now there's worlds for people to enjoy with a few randoms or friends..

I saw the bow being hyped up drastically and the only people who would truly have a benefit from this would be iron accounts at this point, seeing as it would show an accomplishment, if you're a normal player its just another item you could buy with gold from staking imo.

It's because users were selling them at the GE. If they had sold them to users then the price wouldn't have dropped as low as they are now.
