Thread: Retrieving items from game-banned account.

Heaven - January 20, 2017, 8:44 am

So i have an account with a knife on there that is very valuable to me, i was just wondering if there's any possible ways to get that item back ? the game ban is 671 days old.

Thank you :)

Not possible mate.

I've heard there is no chance to get it back :)

Trust me, its gone.

DeadShot - January 20, 2017, 9:08 am there were exploits that existed 2 years ago. Even if there is any now , it must be super private

Heaven - January 20, 2017, 9:09 am damn, if anyone is able to do this i can pay! :)

creki - January 20, 2017, 9:10 am

The ban is way to old for it to be social engineered away, and even if you could do that I don't think valve is unbanning accounts anymore.

You'd have to be really really lucky.

All you gotta do is grow a huge following on youtube, maybe make a montage with cheats and say you're legit. Get big enough to start drama on the csgo subreddit and and pressure valve to unban you.

Nope, there is no way to get them back, if the items worth more then $1k, then PM the owner of IWEBZ I think or someone else there.

Cubex-Software - January 20, 2017, 11:01 am

Yes is posible hit me up with a PM

EDIT: Just trolling

My friend has a method.

I can get you his skype if you like.

It won't be cheap tho so its only worth it if you have a lot of $$$$ in the acc

I think it used to 800 pounds, now 1500 pounds. (not sure, I know it was high af though) It was Oxide or someone.

Not possible, but someone on iwebz does it for a high price.

Why are you saying "not possible" when you are saying someone on iwebs does it for a high price? wtf

I've heard someone on iwebz does it, but never seen proof of it and he was asking upwards of 800 pounds when I contacted him about it. (this was about a year ago)

Underworldproblem - January 21, 2017, 7:12 pm

Gonna cost you a couple of grand. Super expensive. I doubt you'll find anyone without being scammed.
