Wakka - January 20, 2017, 9:22 am

Hi if you are sad, lonely or need advice just post here or PM me. I know I'm not a very serious person most of the time but if you need support I won't ignore you, it's my obligation as a friend to help you.

?ok3r - January 20, 2017, 9:25 am

Wakka,

I like to eat blackberry jam with my feet. I like to stuff my feet coated in this magnificent Jam into my nostrils and make faces at people while riding public transportation. But people are mean to me when I do this. And when I strip naked and start to shriek at them and make suggestive poses, they bully me.

What can I do to ensure that people accept me when I stuff my nose full of BlackBerry Jam on the train/bus while naked and smelling of animal urine? I really liek to sniff the Jam..

MrGod - January 20, 2017, 9:37 am

Hello ?ok3r,

Thank you for stopping by my emotional support thread, I can see you have a thing for jam! It is unfortunate that people are mean to you when you are on public transport pulling faces with your facial orifice filled with jam, forget about those people dude strip naked and wiggle your donger in all their faces and show them who is boss.

People would probably accept you more if you stab them in the throat because that way all they can do is die and they have no choice except to accept you for who you are and the things you like doing, by accepting their fate they accept you and the fact that you just murdered them naked, smelling of animal urine whilst having a nostril full of your preferred jam.

I think someone needs to help you. You're all over the place and acting like a girl then making sad threads and how you said you're in pain then said you're going to kill yourself like you're a grow man you need to act like it then you rip users off. I used to like you, but not anymore.

I'm sorry to hear this, that desire of yours isn't very ideal to have, I suggest looking for women that resemble your mother on dating sites or something like that, maybe you could find the perfect match for you that will play mommy for you.

I think our world is doomed under President Adolf J. Trump.

Please help.

fapninja - January 20, 2017, 9:56 am

Uhh.... this is kinda embarassing, but I need some help regarding my dog.

See, the problem is I think he might be the gay. He mounts other male dogs whenever I take him to the doggy park. But that's not all; his targets are almost exclusively male except by accident. How do I stop this abhorrent behaviour? This just isn't him, and I think he is very confused. It kills me inside every day when I know my dog is the gay.

Only time will tell, don't dwell on it ultimately his time will pass and another president will come fourth, who knows you may even miss trump once he leaves office. Give the guy a chance like my mother gave her mother chance when she fucked off and left her to raise 6 of her siblings alone at the age of 14.

Hello Waka,

I'm writing you because I've had this serious issue that has affected my social life, my job, and my relationships.

A week ago I was fired from my job of three years. We recently hired a new receptionist named Laura and I noticed she was incredibly attractive. Knowing my past issues with this condition I tried very hard to avoid eye contact with her. However she walked over to my cubicle, and dropped papers at my desk, and I couldn't help but notice how loose her shirt was. I felt it. My raging erection. My member expanded, and expanded, until it was laid out in front of her like a massive snake. She screamed at the sight, and my boss decided it was best that I was let go.

I went to my doctor, hoping for some help. He said I suffered from "Hulk Dick Syndrome" or HDS. And that I would have it the rest of my life.

Yesterday my Grandmother was hospitalized. A young blonde nurse was taking care of her, and as she walked in she spilled the glass of water she had in her hand all over herself. Then I felt it again, and immediately my penis expanded to the point it was the size of a young child. The nurse could only watch in horror as my penis laid out on my dying grandmother's face.

I need help Wakka, can you please help me?

Sincerely,

Brenden

Homosexuality is commonplace throughout the animal kingdom, I realise it must be embarrassing for you on daily outings to the park and so on, what you need to do is leave your male dog alone with a female dog so that he gets a sniff of the hormones, this will likely encourage him to want to mount the female and fuck her right in the pussy.

Hi, I can see no alternative except for you to somehow associate females with impending doom, this may reduce the swelling of your member. ?

Yeah, I already tried that unfortunately. Might also mention, what really drove the nail into the coffin for me is his preference for pink. When I feed him donuts, he always eats the pink ones with sprinkles first. He refuses to even sniff chocolate. Everybody knows boys like chocolate and girls like strawberry.

At this point you should probably just shoot the fucker. You can always get a new dog and form a new bond and companionship with it.

I'm glad I could help you through this difficult stage in life, sometimes we encounter trials and tribulations that are going to test every last ounce of our resilience, we must fight on through these difficult periods with integrity and the knowledge that tomorrow is going to be a new day full of new horizons and new opportunities.

Should I make an example of him in front the other dogs at the doggy park? Seems like the right thing to do. I'll leave the corpse behind as well to make sure the other dogs see that the gay dog is dead.

No, you should burn the remains in case other dogs contract the gay virus, you could however put up some fliers which highlight the dangers and warning signs of canine homosexuality.

You mean to say my dog has the aids? Is it possible for a dog to catch the virus from a human? Because there was this fishy looking maintenance guy in my house fixing shit not long before this started. He was wearing a Beatles shirt, so he was probably the gay, and I had shit to do, so I couldn't keep an eye on him. He could have had gay kinky bumsex with my poor doggo.

$25k? Maybe he needs help finding a strong enough rope? Literally nothing can save him at this point, that's his life ruined right there.

Imagine spending every night tossing and turning, remembering how you lost the only $25k you'll ever have and your only chance of ever owning a mint subaru. Sometimes suicide... is just better. My condolences.
