Thread: Brenden's Serious Advice Desk

BR?ND?N - January 20, 2017, 10:16 am

I love helping people with their issues, and seeing Wakka's thread kind of inspired me to make one of my own.

If you have any issues going on in life and want advice, I'm here for you :)

Only taking serious replies. Any trolls will be ignored.

Cabo - January 20, 2017, 10:17 am

What a great idea to post this in the lounge

I expect some serious replies.

Actually no I don't.

Should probably move this.

Eh, if people troll I'll delete it.

Wakka - January 20, 2017, 10:41 am

I've never told anyone this, but I guess I will anyway. Around 8 years ago I murdered my own family member I found out my uncle had been sexually abusing my younger cousin. One night I went around to his house, with me I brought 2x, 1-litre bottles of vodka.

I encouraged my uncle to drink them, and made a few joints for myself. I smoked several joints whilst he sat back guzzling the vodka watching football. Anyway it got to around 23:00 he began to slur his speech so I knew he was quite drunk, I asked him whether he would like another drink so I went into the kitchen and slipped a cocktail of drugs into his drink, he had a mixture of tramadol, strong pain killers and chemotherapy tablets I figured this would be enough to put him on his ass.

At this point wakka was quite stoned, anyway I brought him his drink in, he drank it but did not finish the whole drink... he passed out on the sofa with his drink still in-between his hands I went to the corner of the room and picked up one of the cushions he had threw their earlier. I smothered that bastard while he slept, after his body stopped twitching I just sat there on my chair staring at him, I picked up my weed and left the his flat.

Got a phone call in the morning from my mother, I never mentioned I was there the night before she was crying and I comforted her, I attended the funeral 3 weeks later.

I've never shared this with anyone, and I don't know why I am doing so.

You have to accept what you done. Personally. You don't have to confess to murdering him, however you need to be at peace with yourself over the fact you did it.

He was sexually abusing a family member, so I completely understand the motive, however you murdering him was equally as bad.

At some point you will have to reveal your crime, but before doing that you need to get yourself to a level mental state.

I have my questions regarding this entry, waiting 3 weeks for a funeral after someone passed away is too long, next to this you are mentioning too much details like the time and ingredients of the mix. Typical thing liars would do.

I've never told anyone this, there's this guy on here called Wakka he's a bit of a penis. Not many people like him tbh, I just want to get him help, since him getting help will help us all. Just think if Wakka got help and didn't shit post how happy the lounge would be.

Anyways if you think you can help with my problem please shoot me a PM.

Thanks,
Dredd

Well instead of fueling his shitpost, we should ignore them. Wakka does post some HQ threads however they often get overlooked. If we stop replying to his lq threads, he may stop making them as he doesn't get the reaction he seeks.

(Jan 20, 2017 05:54 PM)M.D. Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Should I stop smoking weed?

You need to ask yourself some questions.

1. Do you enjoy smoking weed?

If you only smoke it to fit into a crowd, or because you think it is "cool", rather than smoking it to enjoy it or have a health benefit. Then you need to quit.

2. Is it effecting your career?

Do you find yourself in a position where your job is constantly put under pressure due to smoking weed? Or do you find it difficult to get a job because of your smoking habit? If so, quit.

Ultimately, if smoking weed hinders your life, then quit. But if you still enjoy it, and think you can be successful in life while actively smoking it, then feel free to keep smoking it :)

Maybe you just need to cut down on how often you smoke it.

Here's a serious question for you buddy boy, my girlfriend is like super stupid, like really not very intelligent, and she worries about everything and follows all rules and would never break any laws even minor ones, she doesn't drink or smoke because she's a very fearful person, its not about her being "sensible" because she isn't, she's just scared of everything, and she's super controlling, I mean she's not able to control be but she definitely tries and it just results in constant arguments which makes her toxic as fuck without her even knowing how toxic she is, and I'm pretty sure she gets all these negative characteristics from her mom as her mom is super toxic, I once was browsing HF on my phone and left the HF screen up on my phone while I went to the toilet and she saw the words "Hack Forums" and she asked me if I was a hacker and threatened to call the police and I had to threaten to sue her to get her to shut up, I know this sounds insanely ridiculous but its true, my gf and her family are extremely stupid people, but my gf is also very hot, so in your opinion what should I do?

Brains over body is how I'd handle it. She may be hot, but you don't want someone who is toxic and frankly dim-witted to be the mother of your children. I suggest breaking it off if you can.

1.I'm not a coder, so I'm unsure.

2.Be friendly to people. Try to help others on the site. Don't be a dickface.

As much as I appreciate you trying to help people, I hope you do realize that you aren't going to get any real replies here, especially on Lounge. Even if somebody says something serious or seeks help here, people who are doing good in their lives and have absolutely no idea what the other person is going through, are going to troll them. Eventually, this thread is just going to turn into one of those heated threads.

Thanks for trying, though. :)
