1. I think visiting your house is a safety hazard for numerous reasons.

Reason a) Health issues may arise from the toxicity in the air

Reason b) You are clearly a serial killer

Reason c) It looks like you use forks as shuriken

Reason d) I could walk in on you masturbating with a vacuum.

Reason e) You would most likely try convince every friend(term used loosely) to join HF and obtain ub3r to give you +3s

The list goes on but I think it's safe to say nobody wants to visit you.

In the case of a girl, however, sex is illegal if she is over 14 but has not reached "sexual maturity"

So you are speculating about someone being sexually mature.

That's not called Karma, that's called Tyrones 13" cock.

Millie Bobby Brown

Born: February 19, 2004 (age 12), Marbella, Spain

Spain is to raise the age of consent from 13 to 16 and the minimum age for marriage from 14 to 16. The change was agreed unanimously in principle by parliament in 2009 under the previous government and is expected to come into force this month (post from 2013)

For Austria, Germany, Portugal and Italy it is 14, and in France, the Czech Republic, Denmark, and Greece it is 15. Spain did have one of the lowest ages of consent on the continent at just 13, but recently agreed to raise this to 16.
