Thread: User banned while dealing, shit luck! @Kompleet 11\$ BTC

@Jupiter - January 21, 2017, 9:43 am

I'll keep this short since it's only 11 bucks.

Posted something up saying I wanted to buy a Pizza Hut Gift Card because why not.

I then sent him a confirmation that I sent the btc, he didnt reply, but browses the forum (refreshes), doesnt view my pm's

Potential scam? I guess we will never know because someone decided to ban him mid way

I was supposed to middleman a deal between him and another user. He ignored my PM so I assume he was trying to scam users.

Reason for ban: Account Under Investigation (use the contact form to recover)

How can you consciously blame me for banning somebody in the middle of a deal? Do you think that I did it for fun? You have access to the banlist, look for his name and read the reason.
