o??ervan? - January 22, 2017, 5:09 pm

I would go for because the word "green" has five characters, let's say you have got the first post in this thread, we do 5+1 which is definitely 6. If you turn around the number "6", it would be "9", but what happens if you divide nine by 1,5? Exactly, it would go back to 6. I just sneezed 2 times btw, let's say 2+ the math I have done is 3. What happens if you multiply 3 by the amount I sneezed? That is 6. Man, so many 6's, I think it's illuminati.

That's why..

LastSession - January 22, 2017, 5:11 pm

I would like to have the Dogecoin award, thanks for the chance.

test - January 22, 2017, 5:12 pm

Varane - November 4, 2017, 5:50 pm

I like how you paid 1.9 ETH for the $20 award... It almost felt like yesterday that ETH was only $8.

ur girls daddy - November 4, 2017, 5:52 pm

I feel like I'd deserve the gift as it is officially less than 48 hours until my 19th birthday. (monday nov6th)

Honestly, I believe that I should win some Monero. Now let me tell you why I deserve it, I've procrastinated a lot in my life and honestly I don't think I've ever gotten anything accomplished without bullshitting my way to a victory. Every single success I've had was because I decided to do something at the last minute and because of which everything was rushed. Now I don't know if it is because I love the feeling of maybe failing, but I've been pushed into many different corners in my life, and the only way for me to truly escape reality, I took up a hobby that required constant research practice, and reading. That hobby is social engineering and low level hacking, with this monero I'm going to upgrade my account and join a group so that I may further expand my knowledge, but this time it won't be pushed to the last minute. I'll have full control of my life, and I believe I deserve this because I won't just waste it, I'll use it on something that I personally believe I need in order to become more successful in life. So there's my reason whether you like it or not, that's completely up to you, but thank you so much for taking the time to read my reply, and I hope you take me into consideration.

Hustla - November 12, 2017, 6:01 pm

The dodge coin award would be a great addition to the row of awards I have. Thanks for the opportunity.

???? - November 21, 2017, 8:33 pm

I'll take that monero award. I deserve it above the others because I'm slowly trying to gain my sorry amount of awards to an acceptable level like Juicy has but I'm just a poor boy.

Fish - November 21, 2017, 8:44 pm

I'd like to enter this contest. Feel free to pick any award.

Carl Elias - November 22, 2017, 5:44 am

I would like the award

I am sure there are others that deserve these awards, but I am just a poor man who wants to give some more money to HF and get something in return. I have been here for years, and it's been a while since I have been part of giving back to HF. Plus recently I've been getting a little award hungry haha

Why does it say successfully sent 1.9ETH equivalent to $20USD? 1.9 ETH is A LOT more than 20USD

Hopsin - November 28, 2017, 1:05 pm

I'd like to participate as well if possible! The award I am applying for is Doge Coin Award.

Because it is fun and I have been member @ HF since 2010! I have earned every single upgrade and award I currently have since I provided to HF: my contributions, help towards other HF members and overall even some great tutorials, tools, packs, I have been even making currency exchange with very low fees when I used to and if you check my threads (contributions) or posts (help I have provided to some members regardless their post count or their registration date), also, I have reported more than 1000 posts at least and keep reporting posts which break HF rules and policies. I am still active and want and will keep supporting HF as long as I can since this is not just an community but an place which you can keep gaining knowledge non-stop. I don't have quantity of posts unlike some other popular members but most of my posts are quality-type. I know I have slim chances to win this since there are always better members but I wanted to give a try.

I know this thread is old but since its not closed yet, I suppose it is still active.

Thank you OP for hosting this contest, good luck to all participants and have a nice day.

Regards, Hopsin.

You sent 1.9 ETH to first winner. That's some money as compared to present time.
