I love to create creatures and characters. And yeah, I'm a Star Wars fan. ?

did you use a wacom for this or how was this made?

TheVBScripiter - January 23, 2017, 6:19 am

You got a gift bro, very well drawn (made) ?

Nyxuo - January 23, 2017, 12:39 pm

This is really well composed. You definitely know your fundamentals and have crafted your skill. How often do you draw and do you have anywhere else you post?

Solitivity - January 23, 2017, 3:00 pm

It's pretty good, even though I'm not a fan of Star Wars.

I was thinking the same thing, first thing I did when I saw it.

JAE_NYCe - January 23, 2017, 3:51 pm

Hmm taking other people's work and not giving them credit?

Looks sick dude

keep it up

LeonBackward - January 23, 2017, 10:59 pm

It looks nice but if it's someone elses work then give credit where credit is due.

To be honest I didn't. I try to give people the benefit of the doubt. Never understood what stealing someones artwork and claiming it as your own does for someone... Lamest shit I ever seen. Is the appraisal from others that important for people? Fucked up.

If this isn't OP's drawing that's a shame but it still stands the drawing is a good one. Just wish people wouldn't plagiarize.
