Definitely recommend everyone to check this out, especially if you're a Tech fan (and haven't heard this before).

Definitely one of my favorites, the lyrics are amazing with meaning, and the beat is amazing too.

Usually not a fan of the vocals, track is great though.

Any idea who produced the track?

I fucking love this song, never really explored outside the genre of Pop, but I heard this song on a speedrun. You have good taste in music OP!

Tech used to be my favorite rapper for a long time. Great money maker too.

He's still one of my favorites. Never seems to release a bad song, nor anyone on his record label.

Still one of my favorites, recently went to his concert in Australia!
