Thread: I have a Maine coon kitten

I was wondering what I would need to do to acquire the cat award?

Do I have to upload obnoxious images of my kitten?

Also, is it off to have a completely well behaved kitten with no training? (Uses litterbox, doesn't destroy things, quiet when he needs to be) I never taught him any of that and I've had him since He was born

Pictures for you cat people:

You'll get the award by not asking for it. And i wouldn't just keep on posting it obnoxiously. Cute cat by the way though dat is a vary naise pusi sir.

For real though, beautiful cat :)

I found a kitten in a field one day last summer, in June, and I ended up bringing her home, poor thing was going to die in the heat out there all alone. The vets think she's a ragdoll, but she's a real gorgeous cat. I don't have any pics on hand right now, but I'll probably come update this post later.

Nice share:)
