Thread: Leaked Source Owner Arrested

GANG? - January 26, 2017, 11:40 am

What a meme kids, apparently happened today what a meme.

This is why you download your own dbs and use on dedi and don't make a name for yourself.

Also the owner of siph0n.in was v& too.

ZuGgY - January 26, 2017, 11:41 am

Any sources (articles, etc) you can provide to verify your claim?

why double post you 100% knew about this thread

minimalist - January 26, 2017, 11:42 am

I've been hearing a lot about it on here but nobody has shared anything from a credible source to confirm it ?

I have his skype so I'll try to contact him.

Hopefully he can also fucking refund me for the sub I bought yesterday (I doubt it)

Princeton - January 26, 2017, 11:45 am

So sorry to see this happen :(

Here is a proof: <http://www.zdnet.com/article/breach-site-leakedsource-raided-by-feds/>

LastSession - January 26, 2017, 11:45 am

There is no proof for this.

Quote: "Yeah you heard it here first. Sorry for all you kids who don't have all your own Databases. Leakedsource is down forever and won't be coming back. Owner raided early this morning. Wasn't arrested, but all SSD's got taken, and Leakedsource servers got subpoena'd and placed under federal investigation.

didn't people pay $60 for a year subscription?

Earliest mention of the site on HF was from this user, now closed:

Posted an hour ago. Don't trust anything until you are 100% sure. All they did was read a thread on here or other sites and relay the info.

to be exact.

?-? ??? ?????? - January 26, 2017, 2:53 pm

Loads of threads on this already, had no idea about the siph0n owner tho, feel like this whole leak source incident will overshadow that whole situation entirely.

As I said in the the thread there's no solid evidence he did get raided, the raid if it did happen could also be for something else.

For all of those who are looking for proof that this is real and really happened, look no further.
