That's not my goal right now. My goal is to get the requirements for kendarin hard.

Once I finish Kendarin hard my goal is to get 99 agility but I'm not sure if I will get it all in one go.

Yeah I did smithing for a while today but I actually got level 40 late last night. I bought 12.5k gold ores and did 40-70 at blast furnace which took no time at all. I think I peak at about 3.1k bars an hour. Could of been faster but I had barely any run energy the whole time.

Yeah there was a few times I would have accidentally left my ice gloves on when putting the ore on the conveyor belt and I'd get 500xp instead of 1.5k. Was really annoying.

Likely going to take a short break from OSRS and play some RS3. Just recovered one of my old accounts the other day and I'm enjoying playing rs3, especially since the servers seem to be much more stable then 07.

Gustav. - February 21, 2017, 2:42 pm

What a downgrade, mate stay on OLDSCHOOL.

OSRS is still my main focus, I just rather not disconnect every 20 seconds. Once the servers are more stable I'll play it more.

RS3 is much more stable in my experiences. No lag on the worlds whatsoever. Not going to argue with you.

I didn't. Did Wintertodt for a few days straight. Really fast XP.

Thanks mate. Hard to not give up when the servers have been this bad. I've played maybe 10 minutes in the past 2-3 days.

No stats in particular, just working on getting stats for raids. Looking to get at least 96 range and 95 attack/defence.

Range is easy asf if you don't mind NMZ. You could get that in a week or 2.
