Thank you ?????s? for the image on your thread, without it, this amazing picture wouldn't have been made.

be as critical as you want, my hands were shaky due to my osu setting still on my tablet, so the lines on the closure hammer aren't great. As for the BTC, I just cant do shit with the way the one wire was sticking out so it's not a perfect circle ?

Thank you, thank you, I'm very skilled at drawing, those fine details in the closure ax or whatever that is really strikes everyone with awe.

Not sure, like an hour? I'm not good at photoshop/drawing so it took me longer than a normal person.

It is weird, but probably wouldn't look as off/weird if I did what I was going to do, I was going to edit the cd Armour to look like the HF background, lol.

There is absolutely nothing better than true modern art.

If I resized it, it'd probably look like trash.
