I could not find a topic which this fit in. I just uploaded a video on my channel and I was criticism what I should do to upload higher quality videos and such this is a call of duty based video.

Maybe improve your mic.

Also, hearing your breathe and move your mouth fluids isn't really enhancing the video, try not to eat the mic.

You don't have to say everything that happens, it really gets kind of annoying.

Also, your intro could really do some improvement.
