Hi OP, I was on chat reading something about paypal, what happened? I had to step out and i missed the end. If it was the troll it sucks that people do this to streamers.

I think somebody sent .01 CAD to his Paypal with a note stating somethign about "Ewhoring"
It kinda flags your account because of that. Paypal is highly alert with keywords like that.

That fucking sucks, that's why less people stream due to these trolls ruining the fun.
