UserCP Recruitment

The Brotherhood is a group of individuals who are bound by loyalty to exercise their skills, knowledge, and time, which will encourage the acts of assisting oneself and others.

Requirements:

We will be accepting up to 10 members into The Brotherhood via UserCP as we're going to test a new sub-forum idea where we need more members.

If you'd like a better chance of getting in PM me a reason why you think you should be invited along with applying via UserCP.

Note: We require our members to be active and participate in group activities if you are invited, be sure to read our handbook and follow all our rules.

I've been replying to PM's where I can but I've been getting a lot of them so if I don't respond it's not exactly anything against you.

I'll be accepting some members in a few days so apply while you can before the recruitment closes.

Brotherhood recruitment will be closed for awhile afterwards.
