Spoiler (Click to View)

This coming season has a lot of potential. Let me know what you think about the shows!

Should also add that MAL list Kekkai Sensen S2 for this coming season but it is not on the chart. If that is true then all aboard the hype train.

Mafty Navue Erin - February 1, 2017, 4:26 pm

Holy fucking shit is all I have to say. This is going to be such a lit season.

Aura - February 1, 2017, 4:33 pm

Pretty excited for Saekano. Should be a good season

DerMensch24 - February 1, 2017, 5:22 pm

I think this is the most loaded season we've had in recent years since early 2010s I'd have to say.

Granblue Fantasy looks decent. As an avid MMO/RPG player, I like Anime based on games like that.

Not really a fan of following weekly releases (show currently airing). I prefer waiting for the season to be completed and watch it all in one go after.

I updated the post for the released v2 of the chart.

I just finished Shingeki no Bahamut, so I am hyped for S2. If you haven't seen the show I recommend you do so for the new season this spring.

Nice chart. I do have to say Overlord's picture looks BA nateworks - March 4, 2017, 4:54 pm

What a shitty season, after this just amazing season it gives us this shit.

Realizm - March 5, 2017, 6:39 pm

At first I couldn't believe how much they were milking the Naruto series coming out with Borito (jokes). But then I remembered they invented the "Extreme Filler Jutsu" so why not the "Milk It Jutsu"?

Happy to see so many decent anime though. Definitely happy about Hero Academy, I picked that up towards the end of it's airing thinking it wouldn't be for me but I enjoyed it quite a bit.

Also excited for the "over-hyped" Attack on Titan. They took long enough for a second season for sure. And milked the shit out of the first season with those stuffed toy things or whatever and everything else like the "movie" that was just cut up scenes from the series. I'm excited. It I know that getting my hopes up for it to be anything spectacular would just be cause for a let down after such a long wait, so I'll try to hold back watching this until the season is about to end.

The Atom: Beginning looks interesting so I'll definitely check it out. I've only read the description, no trailers or previous knowledge of this anime. Hopefully it's one of those cool mysterious types that leaves a huge reveal about the earth.

I'm also curious to see what RE: Creators will be. I don't like the fact that it's just Action but the description leaves me curious which is enough for me I suppose :P

Am I the only one excited for best girl?
