Thread: Ok hackforums, Help me find this song please! Update: Found the song eat my shorts.

W?If - February 1, 2017, 9:00 pm

I have been looking for it for the past week and can't find it at all. It's EDM-ish song and I remember hearing this song when I was high asf. I remember in the comments people would say the song made them feel as if they were in outer space or flying through space.

I have 0 clues to give, but if you have a song that makes you feel that way then post it down below and help me!

Also the song is fairly popular so it's not some random song.

Quote I was talking about "2:01 makes me feel like my spaceship malfunctioned and I'm plummeting to the Earth, but before I die I see a glimpse of the planet's true beauty."

Update: found the song suckers!

Sadly nope, the song is more chill. You're feeling really down to earth and shit. Nothing as hyped and rowdy as that song. Thanks for trying though.

Real vague. Can you provide any further information? Vocals? Define popular? 500k views? 100m views?

In the meantime, enjoy another song.

I cannot remember if it had words at all by I know another hint if it's any good.

The song is popular enough that I hear it playing on pandora a lot and when I go inside some stores.

The song in itself has nothing to do with space, but it makes you feel as if you're in a spaceship flying through space. I don't know what better way to describe it.

Thanks for trying, I swear if any of u guys find this I will suc...

I heard it way to long ago to check my browser and youtube history. Also I tried going through all my spotify accs cause I know I had added it, but somehow can't find it.

Also I believe it's popular on soundcloud haven't tried searching on there

Is it actually EDM? (electronic dance music)?

Cabo - February 1, 2017, 9:28 pm

Is it drum and bass? Liquid dnb?

It would help a bit if I knew which sub genre of edm it was

I wouldn't say it has much bass or drum, it's more artificial so maybe liquid dnb? don't know much of the specifics in edm.

PerfectStorm - February 1, 2017, 11:17 pm

He was too high to remember the lyrics. This is why their should be an app that identifies songs based of the music and not just lyrics. Im not impressed with shazam I could listen the track myself and type a couple words into google and find the song if it had spoken lyrics. But something that identifies based off music and the actual soundtrack alone? that I would buy. I am preaching this to the holy..... preach over.

It's not a music video it's one of those videos like trap nation with the pulsing art with the song playing (I believe)
