Note: When purchasing a promo, your username will be added to a queue. If I have a lot of current orders, your order will be placed in a queue. I try my best to start asap, but don't expect me to start instantly if I have 5-10 other promos to finish.

Once I receive your payment, your username will be added in the queue!

Review for now:

I paid for 1k promo and it's still going I believe I've gained around 200 or so far from it maybe a little less but I must say none of them are liking my posts which kinda sucks but they do look real accounts and real followers so I can't hate on it. Thanks for the service.?

So far you've gained around 300 followers. That's less than 1% of your total 166k followers. If you paid for 1k followers, that doesn't mean that all 1k will like your posts. These are real followers gained through shoutouts.
