Thread: Twitter/Instagram verification service?

black forums - February 3, 2017, 3:42 pm

I'm looking for someone who is able to verify my Twitter and Instagram. I will be paying for this to be done, but I will only pay after I am verified - that is non-negotiable.

If you're a serious person then let me know by either PM or posting on the thread for me to contact you directly.

i mean it will be negotiable because you're paying top dalla well best of luck with this

Good luck finding a legit verification service. Make sure to deal with caution, as most people that claim to be able to do this are probably full of shit.

Site doesn't seem realistic at all, if I could pay $280 to have each one of my social medias verified I would sure as hell do it. Hell, serplogic's own social media isn't verified what kinda signs does that show? Looks like a scam to me. There has to be someone, some sort of agent, that can hook me up to look official enough to be verified on each platform I desire.

Thanks for the heads up, I'm aware of the people who claim to be able to do what they can't, which is why I won't be giving any sorts of funds first.

I can get you verified, it'll cost $150 for verification, BTC only. It'll take 24 hours

Don't be fooled, nobody can verify your account.

Only 1 guy that i know of, has connects with TwitterGaming and can get some accounts verified.
PM me and i'll try to help

Just messaged you regarding this.

I think you would be better off purchasing a secure verified account and attempting to get all the info changed to your own. I have heard of one way to get verified, but it involves spending a ridiculous amount of money on twitter ads?

Yeah, but you can't change verified @'s which bothers me.
