About the Author

Mr. Krabs worked as the Dishwasher of the Krabby O'Monday's from 1934 to 1964, washed more than 1,300 dishes for his customers, as well as abusing hundreds of employees, including the infamous SpongeBob in the restaurant known as Krusty Krab. In 1999, he met his ancestor, King Krab, who greatly supported his restaurant. More recently, he was invited to an "Ask Me Anything" discussion on Reddit about anger management.

This is a great offense. Our site provides top notch infosec news regarding the underground cybercriminal forums dubbed "HF", and is in no way a troll.

Omniscience decided to censor our site. RIP KrabsOnSec, you will be missed.
