Thread: Able to view a page that should be viewable for staff only.

Patzan - February 8, 2017, 5:39 am

I asked few members and they could view the page as well and it should be for staff only.
I don't sure if Omni changed it so everyone can view it.

- Sent PM to Minimalist and removed the page from here.

Why don't you PM a staff member instead of making this thread? Now everyone is gonna look at it when they are not supposed to.
Just saying.

It doesn't work for me. He could have fixed it I suppose

I mean like, it is no private data. You can find all those threads by viewing section by section. Not a big deal.

It's an uber page that was changed to staff only for a short period

The changes are probably done and it's back to uber

Well the thread I linked is the exact same "problem".. Omniscient posted that he's trying to automate it, could be changing the permissions and shit.

Didn't saw it already posted.

Will close it now.
