You could have thrown a little more against the BTC fees.

like 8+ hours now and the damn thing has not a single transaction as of yet. ?

I paid my side properly, and I dealt with 8 transactions prior so its OBV the fees you paid.

I know its gonna go through, but I made a clear point I wanted this done quickly as I had a bill to pay, your negligence to adhere and pay proper fees has now fucked me up.

Thanks bro.

I am actually pretty pissed about this, I told you directly why I needed this transfer so quickly and you fuck about with BTC transaction fees. And do NOT argue, cause I can see what was paid in the TXID.....

i am truly sorry mate, i sent it as a standard fee was on blockchain when sent. after i sent it, the fee levels kept increasing a good bit.. i am sorry i should have sent it as priority and made sure it was received within an hour or two. i can try to boost the transaction now if possible. my apologies.

I won't go first unless you're the OP of one of the threads I've been replying to or you have multiple recent positive reps for exchanging. Even then you'll have to PM me on-site with your OTR authentication or at the very least your XMPP name to verify that you are in fact who you say you are.
