Thread: Just finished lvling a smurf to lvl 25...

Hey guys!

I just lvled my smurf to lvl 25...

It was hell! It took me freaking 4 days x.x

I mean buying a account is no option...

What I did was playing Quickplay with random teams to gain the extra 20% xp + sticking to the queue to get the consecutive match bonus.

What are your thoughts on smurfing in general and lvling?

Leveling to 25 is a pain in the ass and I hate to do it, but I love to smurf and boost other people at the same time.

Yea its a real pain in the ass xD

But to play with my friends its worth the hassle...

Also its kinda funny to see how shit newbies are. ?
