Coconut Chocolate.

Literally if i wanted diarrhea i'd buy laxatives.

I mean anything whey tastes like aids, but it depends on how much aids you wanna taste, and this is too much

That is why you chug it like a man, don't sip it like a women, its not supposed to be a dessert.

Literally. No.

I chug it down, but after being on Dutch Chocolate for 2 months in a row, nothing but dutch chocolate. fuck, even thinking about it makes me want to vomit.

Literally, after a while your body just refuses it. i get jittery whenever i even think of preparing another dutch chocolate.

now i just isopure alpine punch.

literally not even that bad.

i wish there was a protien powder that wasn't creamy tho.

Whey protein powders are literally the remnants of cheese production (which involves milk), so there's no such thing as a non-creamy product. Go vegan if you want something non-creamy.

Manks - February 11, 2017, 4:38 pm feelsbad they are all temp out of order. can i still order for the same price doe?
