DrDaddy - February 13, 2017, 11:57 am

Rowan Atkinson aka Mr Bean :)

HAHA Br Bean is great! Thought I dont think you could lump British comedy in with American comedy because they are so different in styles.

However, the first comedian I ever watched was Gabriel Iglesias and I found him very funny. I dont watch much comedy and there are probably many other way funnier people but idk theres something funny about a fat hispanic man who makes fun of himself and has super good sound effects xD

I liked John Pinette but sadly he passed away a few years ago.

Russell Peters is also a favourite of mine.

I will agree with this statement. Hilarious stand-up, not the biggest fan of his TV series but his stand-up is some of the best I've ever watched.
