So I had done some deals with this guy in the past, he messaged me looking for some BTC and we agreed I would send him $10 BTC and he would send me $12 Paypal. I sent BTC and he hasn't replied since. (Over a week)

I can see he has been online so its obvious he is ignoring me.

Kind of sad that someone would scam for $12.

He had alot of DWC's so I doubt he will pay you back.

I also got scammed for $12, its almost funny how broke those people are.

Goodluck getting this resolved.

You shouldn't have trusted him, Since he is a spamming 12 yr old.

THE NORTH FACE - February 16, 2017, 1:04 pm

He has a ton of DWC rep, idk why you would ever go first for him.

First of all he needs to change is fucking name before I find him and fuck him.

Edit: Up* fuck him up.

Logically this makes zero sense. His upgrade cost $18, and he scammed for $12.

Hope this gets resolved.

Valid scam report. Sad to see that people scam for a measly $12, let alone scam at all.
