Okay, you are cancer, you made a post to bait people and that's sad. You can't take a whole sub-genre and paint it with the same brush... Not mad, Not flaming but you're a dumbfuck.

I've had to put up with alot of metalcore, all of it is the same.

This brush is the only one that came in my elitist set.

Maybe I should get the expansion pack?

Then I can paint deathcore too.

I listen to alot of shit to be honest, for a 19 year old my taste in music is expansive, I guarantee we can agree on some music... You seem like you enjoy Free and Back Street Crawler... I could be wrong.

Metalcore is alright, I don't mind it.

I am more into Industrial metal, thrash metal, ect ect.

I'm a sucker for Japanese metalcore ngl. I can't stand metalcore otherwise.

Grimzyy - February 19, 2017, 3:55 am

Metalcore and deathcore are ok. Prefer just rock music (breaking benjamin, skillet, red, evans blue)

Suicide silence isn't metalcore, its deathcore.

Asking alexandria is emo as fuck...

You don't know what metalcore is by the sounds on things.
