Site Name: SE Community

URL: vulcannetwork.co.uk/mybb/misc.php?page=home SE Community Website (Temporary Domain)

Type (Forum, Blog, Website, or Affiliate): Forum

Category: General, Technology, Media, and Gaming

SE Community is a place where you can interact with other social media creators in the aim to promote your accounts to help them grow/collaborate with other users.

We also provide a marketplace where accounts can be exchanged, as a site we take full responsibility for transactions so we provide site staff as middleman's (obviously other MM's can apply)

It's been weeks since I updated this so seeing as I've been upgraded I can now should you can preview of the site! Today we just came into a functional release so bugs will be visible. Here are a new of the notable custom features.

Custom theme [updated daily]

Signing up. Looks really cool

Theme is not custom and is actually the theme I ripped a while back. Would recommend getting your own custom theme to help make your site unique.

In addition to what nath said you're not only using a ripped theme, you're also copying design from sharree.
