Thread: 3 Years, 3+3+2 days, 30k posts

b?xxy - February 19, 2017, 1:17 am

I'm going to be giving my honest feedback, without going into too much detail on the forum now.

Eh, I really don't even want to comment about groups really.

Groups have gone so downhill over the years honestly, really sad to say.

I guess maybe I've been pulling away from HF... I don't see myself leaving anytime soon..

Omniscient: Well, you've RKO'd me twice(I think it was you) and banned me before for changing my username 38,000 times in what I think was under 20 minutes. You've really done a lot with the site, and I applaud that. I see you around posting here and there, nothing really big has been happening lately regarding site development(As far as I'm aware at like 5 in the morning). I wish you'd post more, although you're probably super busy with your family, etc. You've run an amazing site, and there are so many things I've learned and accomplished from being here, regardless of what the shitposters say, etc. There's actually a great sum of knowledge here, and that's hard to come by. Keep doing what you're doing and don't give up on us.

Eagle 95: Thanks for dealing with my reported posts and not being stuck up. Great staff member, keep up what you're doing and be online more so I can report more shit. Imao.

King of Hearts: Haven't really seen you on in a while, meh.

Skorp: Good staff member, it's been a while since I've sent you a PM as well. Good times.

Sam Winchester: I think I've PM'ed you twice Imao, haven't seen you really on either.

Minimalist: I thought you could handle the buttload of threads that I gathered. Maybe one day you'll be really bored and you'll dedicate your time to fix HF with me. Oh well.

Well, that's it. 30,000 posts on an online forum in the span of three years.

I'm the 7th member to do it, I mean unless someone had all their posts deleted or something?..

Meh. It's been a good run, I'm not leaving, but fuck bcause I just don't know why I feel like this..

Prophett - February 19, 2017, 2:16 am
I think I could beat 30k posts in three years - only if I become active again.

Today's date minus his registration date = 8.

Means he's on the site 3 years, 8 days.

I actually didn't plan on it, nor was trying for it honestly.
I looked at my posts and I was almost at 30k, and was like "woah, 30k would be tight."

I didn't really do a long feedback thread, so I decided it was appropriate to leave those out.

Larsenpower - February 19, 2017, 11:38 am

Congratulations, boxxy. Nice to see people like you being this active.

Thanks for everything you've been contributing to the forums, especially the eWhoring section. It would not have been the same without you

I've been busy with college. I'm going to university this year so I have to prioritise. It's currently half term so I will become active for the next 7 days.

Ultra Instinct - February 19, 2017, 11:43 am

Congrats on reaching 30k post man. You have done a lot from this site, especially in the E-Whoring section and I appreciate that. Anyways, congrats again on 30k post.

30k posts is mad man, congratulations on your achievement!

Damn man 30k posts?

Nice job, and nice years here on HF.

Mi2414 - February 19, 2017, 11:50 am

Very glad to hear about the achievements mate, glad that I met you. You are very nice person, I hope you enjoy more time here like I have.

Jas.son - February 19, 2017, 12:18 pm

So that means,

$$30,000 / 3 = 10,000$$

$$10,000 / 365 = 27.4$$

$$27.4 / 24 = 1.1$$

So you post 1-2 times every hour. Not that much. Holy shit.

b?xxy - February 19, 2017, 12:22 pm

Thanks guys ^^^

Well, normally I'm only on for a bit and post a lot in that time.

I'm not on 24/7(I really am though)

Should have written $3+3+3-3/3$ then ?

I remember when you first hit me up about some small coding job and I was amazed at how many posts you made in only a year after you joined or w/e. Glad to see you still active so many years later ?

Good times, but meh.

I hardly post in groups anymore, they're just frankly not the same as they were in the past.

Nate - February 20, 2017, 2:10 pm

I should get back to posting lmao.

I've been inactive for awhile

Did the math, I post .18 a post per hour lmao.

I've seen you around more than most since I've been here, so kudos to you for sticking around. I've never really been into eWhoring but I've come around a few tutorials of yours and they're pretty neat actually. I remember that you were so good at eWhoring some people actually thought you were a girl lmao (or maybe you are?). Hopefully you'll be around for long, cheers man :)

Actually, not really. Just kind of hang around the programming sections and the SRPP every once in a while.
